

AT HAND TO DAY.
Sept 21-d&wtf LINN & SCRUGGS.
Price, $1.00. Spent
May 19-d&wtf

NO. 168

CORNER.

"what is left of it will

COMING IN FACT,

the many friends who we have distance which we have received

Assortment of

NG!

allies around us. We have found the Least Money.
—it is too well known.

ent Prices,
it,
Our Own Manufacturing, money that we sell them dy-story when taken home and re-

GOODS

We call special attention You

HATS and CAPS,

RLEY."

KAUFMANN & BACHRACH
Manufacturers of
MEN'S AND BOYS'
Clothing!

Dealers In
Goods for Men's Wear.
Cor East Main & Water Sts.
DECATUR.
Factory—Chicago, Illinois
March 15—44717

French Cutter!

and Member of the New York
Cutter's Association.

S. VEALE,
Chant Tailor,

y New York Cutter in the brought here in 1870,
by Linn & Scruggs.

I have now got

Fall Stock

over 15 years practice in cutting and science in goods, can say I have

SELECTED STOCK
BROUGHT TO DECATUR.

prepared to make them up to the size and on the most reasonable

CT FITS GUARANTEED.

MES VEALE,
French Cutter from Cork,
St., 1 Deer West of Water
Decatur, ILLINOIS.
1901—48 mos

P. S. WHITE.

YER & SON,
HOUSE AND SIGN

INTEREST!

SPECIALTIES:
ing. Graining. Glazing, Finishing and Tinting.

one block north of City Park, across and William streets.
1500—477

WATER MARK

CHAS. E. RAY, engraver
AND ALL WORK DONE
BY HAND. Satisfaction
A GUARANTEE. Address
No. 211 N. W. Second Street
15—4870000

Iowa is a mighty poor state for Democrats to migrate to.

Samuel Davis, can fill the vice president's chair as well as any man we know of—and better than any lean and hungry Democrat.

The discoverer and inventor of David Davis has "dropped into poetry," as it were, and with King Lear, now realizes "How sharper than a serpent's tooth it is to have a thankless child."

Does the editor of the Review think that his representative in the United States senate "performed a legal act in an honorable manner," when he allowed his name to be used for the purpose of overthrowing Democratic supremacy in that body?

In perusing over the Dictionary of Popular Questions last night the inventor of David Davis pondered long over this old stanza from Burns:

"The best laid schemes o' mice and men Gang aft a-gley; And lea'e to wee wi' grief and pain For promised joys."

The Chicago Daily News pertinently suggests that "some of the newspapers should invite Mr. Arthur into a conclave on the cabinet appointments. It is cruel to exclude the president from participation in the controversy now going on."

Now that Senator David Davis is first in the line of succession to the presidency, our REPUBLICAN neighbors should rest easy. They need not be afraid of the country going to ruin.—Review.

And how easy do you rest, neighbor?

The Garfield fund now amounts to $339,093. The police force of New York City have subscribed $717 to the fund. The Michigan relief fund of that city now amounts to $36,984. Of this sum $93,300 has been transmitted to the fire relief commissioners of Michigan. Some $35,000 was remitted yesterday.

On the 10th of October Mr. Bayard was chosen president pro tem. of the senate, and on the 11th confederate bonds were in demand not only in Europe but in this country. Had this coincidence anything to do in inducing Judge Davis to permit the Republicans to elect him to the chair? Probably the "independent" gentleman who put the judge on the ticket as senator can answer the conundrum.

The Republican members of the United States senate yesterday "proceeded to the performance of a legal duty, in an honorable manner," as our neighbor of the Review would express it, but it is a sad truth that every Democratic senator present—with a single exception—took occasion to oppose the solemn performance of the said "legal duty," and one of them made a labored argument against it. We trust our neighbor is satisfied with the result, since it places the presidential succession in the hands of his "own and only" senator—his individual creation—and we confidently look for him to read a wholesome lecture to the Democrats of the senate upon the unpatriotic exhibition they made of themselves when they placed upon record their unanimous opposition to "the performance of this legal duty in an honorable manner."

The Democrats of Ohio were aided in their last campaign by drouth, short crops and the pink eye, and yet they were beaten. We have known the time when the Democratic orators of Ohio would have made ten thousand votes out of the pink eye alone, by charging it to the Republican party. Guess the Ohio Democrat has got the pink eye itself now.—Globe Dem.

KING KALAKAUA is very fond of amusements. Since he has been in New York, however, he has refused to go to the circus. He has had an experience with that institution which will last him a lifetime. On his first visit here he was a victim of Barnum, who urged him to go to the hippodrome in the Madison Square Garden "to see the horse." When Kalakaua entered with life upon the old showman, by a prearranged arrangement, had at the door a pandemonium and gaily upholstered open carriage. "This way, your highness," he cried, giving a signal to his attendants, who at once, with gentle firmness, lifted the king into the vehicle and drove a huge bouquet into his lap. Barnum jumped in after him, and the hand man, turned out, "Three cheers for Barnum and the King!" The audience was delighted, and cheered vociferously. The king's face grew black at the indignity. But before the circus was started the king concluded to treat himself to a joke, and smiled in a friendly way at the three the bouquet to the king. The king, who, he heard, was a very good fellow, smiled back at the king. But before the circus was started the king concluded to treat himself to a joke, and smiled in a friendly way at the three the bouquet to the king. The king, who, he heard, was a very good fellow, smiled back at the king. But before the circus was started the king concluded to treat himself to a joke, and smiled in a friendly way at the three the bouquet to the king. The king, who, he heard, was a very good fellow, smiled back at the king.

THERE is something peculiar in the revival of interest in the matter of the ex confederate bonds. The transactions in the Amsterdam market a short time ago gave rise to considerable comment, and since then other evidences that something is in the wind have made their appearance. The other day a bank at Little Rock, Ark., received orders from New York to buy all that could be procured at the rate of $2.50 per $1,000. It is apparent that there are parties who want all of the bonds they can get hold of at about that price, and it is only reasonable to suppose that they are buying them with the expectation that something can be realized on them. The demand, without much doubt, comes from Europe, and indicates that some sharpers are at work gulling the innocent-minded into the belief that Democratic ascendancy means the payment or part payment of the ex confederate debt. There has been some talk recently also about the assets of the default confederacy. It is said that at the close of the war there were large amounts of cotton in Liverpool belonging to it, which have remained unaccounted for, and it is also known that there is £150,000 of its money held by the bank of England. But it cannot be that any bond purchaser is so foolish as to suppose that he can get anything out of that. England comes in as a creditor of the ex confederacy to the extent of $15,500,000, the amount she paid out for the Alabama award, and just how large the general indebtedness of the exploded government is no one has thought it worth while to take the trouble to estimate. Even if the confederacy had been successful the bonds would have been of doubtful value. The treatment of their state debts does not indicate that the southern people are ready public debt-payers. The presumption is that some people are being taken in. But the circumstance is of some value as showing how the Democratic party is regarded abroad.—Globe Democrat.

THE Democrats are not succeeding very well in getting that "foothold for 1884" of which they have talked so much. They are much farther from the Federal pasture fields now than they were six months ago. They are effectually fenced out for twenty years more.—Globe Dem.

Scientific Advancement. Scientific advancement, it has been remarked, has been slower and less noticeable in the care of the sick and the treatment of disease than in any other department of human knowledge. The life or death of a patient is too frequently a mere matter of accident or chance. Some great discoveries, however, have been made and certain remedies are known and used with almost infallible curative results. Such a remedy is TARAXINE where a deranged liver is involved, or where disease of the bowels, kidneys or spleen prevail. Dr. A. J. Stoner, Agent.

The venerable ex-Governor Hillard Hall is reported as having said at the Garfield memorial meeting at Bennington, Vt.: "I heard the announcement of the deaths of all the deceased presidents at the time they occurred, beginning with that of Washington, and ending with that of Garfield, whom we mourn to day."

Call at Stoner's drug store and get a sample bottle of Brown's Expectant free of charge. It cures coughs, hoarseness, whooping cough, and consumption in its early stages.

It is a scientific preparation, admirably adapted for the cure of all throat and lung diseases. It is pleasant to take and entirely harmless.

Try it. It costs you nothing. Regular size bottles 50 cents and $1.00. For sale by Dr. A. J. Stoner, Jolysd & Whitten.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 13.—President Arthur has determined that he will not stand in nomination for the Cabinet until after the Yorktown celebration. He said to Senators this afternoon that he would be gratified if the Senate would not take any early step toward an adjournment. He added that, of course, he would have to go to Yorktown himself, and he would be pleased to have all of the Senate go. When asked further as to his wishes, he suggested that the Senate take a recess of several days to attend the Centennial and do honor to the French and German visitors. He added that he would not detain the Senate many days after his return from Yorktown. As the original programme of the government's participation in the centennial, and of honors to the foreign visitors were contemplated by the present cabinet and partially arranged by them, the president wants to carry it out. Therefore, he wants to keep the cabinet together until after the centennial. He will make the cabinet nomination, however, immediately after the centennial, but the senate will not adjourn until after the 25th.

Attention, Veterans The annual meeting of the "Marion County Veterans Association" will be held at the court house in Decatur, on Saturday, the 23d day of October, for the purpose of electing officers and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before it. A full attendance is requested. By order G. S. DUMPER, President J. A. BARNES, Sec.

Don't Forget the big sale of Dry Goods on Tuesday morning, at No 18 Merchant street. Oct 10-11w R. S. BROWN

CANTON'S Little Liver Pills have not equal as a prompt and positive cure for sick headache, biliousness, constipation, pain in the side, and all liver troubles. Try them. For sale by Hubbard & Swearingen.

TELEGRAPHIC

"COME UP HIGHER,"

Said the Servants of the Lord Unto David.

And He Went Up to the Place that Thomas had Tried to Fill for a Few Days,

AND FILLED IT.

At which there was Great Rejoicing, Mingled with Wails and Gnasings of Democratic Teeth.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Immediately after reading the journal a number of nominations were received from the president.

Mr. Lamar offered a resolution requesting the president to advise the senate whether any action had been taken by the government since the last session of the senate toward protecting the rights and interests of the United States in the project of the inter-oceanic canal. Tabled for future action.

Mr. Edmunds called up his resolution continuing the standing committees as constituted last session. Mr. Garland offered an amendment providing that only the following committees should be continued: Foreign relations, finance, commerce, military, judiciary, post offices and post roads, public lands, pensions and Indian affairs. He contended that the committees named were the only ones that would have any work to do during the special session.

Mr. Edmunds opposed the amendment. There were committees which were not provided for which, in his opinion, would be necessary to perform the work of the session.

He instanced the committee on privileges and elections as one which should be organized. There was on the table now a petition presented by the senator from New Jersey (McPherson) said to seriously affect the right of a senator from New York to a seat in this body. That ought to be inquired into. Then here was the committee on railroads which might have work to do. It was known from public report that there had been an important officer suspended for some supposed failure to perform his duty, and by law it was required that such suspension should be reported to the senate. The committee on contingent expenses was also a necessary committee.

Mr. Garland said he would modify his amendment so as to continue the committees on privileges and elections and contingent expenses. He thought it would then include all the committees necessary to organize at this time.

Garland's amendment was rejected—yeas, 35; nays, 37; Davis, of Illinois, and Mahone voting with the Republicans.

Edmunds' resolution was then adopted—yeas, 37; nays, 35. The standing committees are therefore continued as constituted at the last session, and the president pro tem. is authorized to fill the vacancies which may exist.

As soon as the result was announced, Mr. Logan offered a resolution for the election of David Davis, a senator from Illinois, as president pro tem. of the senate.

Mr. Pendleton asked that the resolution lie over one day under the rules. So ordered.

An executive session then followed. At 1 p. m. the doors were opened, and the senate again met in open session.

Mr. Pendleton rose and stated that, upon reflection and consultation with senators on his side of the chamber, he had concluded to withdraw his objection to the immediate consideration of the resolution proposing the election of Senator Davis as president pro tem.

The senate then proceeded to consider the resolution.

Mr. Jones, of Florida, opposed the adoption of the resolution in a speech, taking the ground that the tenure of office of the president pro tem. is during the absence of the vice president of the United States.

A vote was then taken on Logan's resolution, resulting in its adoption—yeas 36, nays 34, Bayard and Davis, of Illinois, not voting.

The chair, Harris, then appointed Senators Bayard and Anthony a committee to escort the president pro tem. elect to the chair.

On taking the chair, Mr. Davis made a brief speech, in which he said the high honor conferred upon him came without any expectation on his part. If the compliment had carried any party obligation with it, he should have felt constrained to decline it.

Mr. Kellogg's resolution calling for the papers in the case of Vincenzo Rebellio was adopted.

Mr. Edmunds offered a motion thanking Mr. Bayard for impartiality displayed by him as president. This seemed to strike the senate as satire, and another explosion of laughter ensued. Mr. Edmunds saw he had been misconstrued, and he rebuked the senators for their conduct. He then said he offered the motion in all sincerity, and Mr. Bayard was entitled to thanks because he had occupied the chair at a time when partisan or partial rulings could have been made and would have worked injustice. He insisted that Mr. Bayard had been fair in all things, and the resolution was unanimously adopted.

Senator Bayard refused to vote on Mr. Logan's resolution, saying he had never obtained office by his own vote, and would never retain it thus. Mr. Davis did not vote either.

Some Democratic senators think Pendleton's action in withdrawing his motion to let the resolution electing Davis lie over, was unwise. Had it been deferred until to-morrow, Mr. Bayard would have had an opportunity to fill the vacancies on the committees. Under Edmunds' resolution adopted this morning, he could have made a Democratic chairman of the foreign relations, and could have given the Democrats a majority on finance, military and judiciary committees, and still be able to provide for the new senators on inferior committees. Other senators say that Bayard would have been too delicate to take advantage of the delay, knowing that his tenure was to be so brief.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—There is apparent disappointment among Democratic senators at Davis' election. They generally believed up to the last moment that he would not accept. Some of them criticize pretty severely, saying he has virtually abandoned his much boasted independent position. A Democratic senator who generally reflects his party sentiment accurately says: "Judge Davis' ambition was tempted by the possibility of reaching the presidential chair, and that overcome his usually good judgment. I believe that he did not more than half give his own consent to accept that position at the hands of the Republicans, and I feel confident that the Republicans will be awfully disappointed in him. They lay the flattering unction to their souls that he will remain silent on all party questions, and thus leave them a majority of one. I am satisfied that he will not do anything of the kind. I do not believe that he will vote with the Republicans any more in the future than he has in the past. I have confidence in his integrity, and while I think he made a mistake in taking this position, he will never be guilty of any act that will give the transaction the color of bargain, as far as he is concerned."

Another Democrat, who represents the views of those who criticize Davis, says: "I regard Davis' election as a result of a bargain. I do not mean that certain terms and conditions were definitely stated and agreed upon. This I am satisfied was not done, but there was and is a tacit understanding as to what Davis is to do for the Republicans. He understands that he is expected to vote on questions where the Republicans want a majority, and he will comply. The Republicans were too smart to demand a definite pledge from [David Davis, and because they did not the old man persuades himself that there was no bargain, and the country will see the affair in that light."

"Davis said to-day to a Democratic senator, with whom he enjoys intimate relations, that he wanted his friends to understand that the position came to him unsought and without any conditions, and that he would not accept it otherwise, though he frankly admitted that he desired the position. His friend assured him that he had no doubt of the integrity of his purpose. Davis then remarked that he would not assist either by his vote or by not voting to displace any Democratic official, and that he would vote to give the Democrats the secretary of the senate. He added that he intended to vote in the future as he had in the past, in accordance with his own judgment, and when the proposition to elect him was formally submitted, Davis declared that he would only accept it unconditionally."

Republican senators questioned in regard to the future action of David Davis, profess to have no knowledge of how he will vote on Secretary and sergeant at arms. If such knowledge exists, it is confined to those who were very earnest in bringing about his election. Republican senators, without exception, repudiate the assertion that there was any bargain as to the future, and say that ousting Bayard was done to remove as much as possible the danger of Arthur's death being a partisan advantage to anyone. It is thought a move will be made to-morrow to elect a secretary.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—A cable dispatch from Dublin says: Parnell was arrested at Morrison's Hotel, where he was stopping, previous to starting for the Kilmore convention at Nass. Inspector Mallon called at the hotel this morning and sent up word to the Land League leader, who was still in bed, that he would like to see him. The hotel porter returned word that he would be happy to see the inspector as soon as he was dressed. Soon after he sent for Mallon, who with Detective Sheridan went up stairs. Parnell met him pleasantly and asked, "Do you intend to arrest me?" "Yes," replied Mallon, handing him the warrant, still wet with Foster's signature, for the chief secretary only returned from London by the morning mail at 8 o'clock. Parnell then glanced over the warrant and said, "all right." He put on his hat and walked down stairs with the policeman. A cab was waiting at the door and the three men entered it. "Kilmainham," cried Mallon to the driver, and they drove off. There were four other policemen, in citizens' clothing, in another carriage. On arriving at Kilmainham, Parnell was assigned to a cell at once. There was no demonstration, as no one knew about the arrest beyond the parties who were immediately concerned.

DES MOINES, IA., Oct. 13.—Fall and reliable returns from seventy-two counties give Sherman a net majority of 31,528. The official returns change the previous estimates on the legislature. Cotton, Rep., is elected over Merrill, Dem., in Clinton county, and Patrick, Rep., is elected in Iowa county. As the count now stands the Republicans have 45 senators, Democrats 4, Greenbackers 2. Returns for the house show the Republicans lose one member in Wayne, one in Benton, one in Linn, one in Stephens and one in Guthrie. This makes the house stand, according to present returns, Republicans 75, Democrats 20, Greenbackers 5.

DES MOINES, IA., Oct. 13.—Returns from sixteen more counties, in addition to the sixty-two reported last night, confirm the estimate in the total majority of Sherman for governor as sent in these dispatches last night. These 78 counties give Sherman a net majority over Kinne of 28,600, and sustain the previous estimates that his majority will be 48,000. There is no change from the figures of the last election. In the legislature—senate stands 44 Republicans to 4 Democrats and 2 Greenbackers, and the house stands 77 Republicans, 19 Democrats and 4 Greenbackers.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 13.—The chairman of the Republican state committee says that Foster's majority over Bookwalter will be 29,000, and the other candidates on the Republican ticket will be about 1,500 more. The house stands 50 Republicans, 35 Democrats, senate, 22 Republicans, 11 Democrats. The official figures may show some change.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 13.—Returns from seventy-six of eighty-six counties show Republican gains of 10,489 and Democratic gains of 5,856, a net Republican gain of 4,633. Add the net gain to Townsend's majority for secretary of state last October and it gives Foster, Republican, for governor 23,638 majority.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 13.—Mr. Nash, chairman of the state central committee, says to-night that Foster's majority over Bookwalter will be 23,000, and that the other candidates on the Republican ticket will be about 1,500 more. The house will stand 50 Republicans and 35 Democrats, and the senate 22 Republicans to 11 Democrats. The official figures cannot be obtained for several days.

MORE GOOD NEWS.

A Fine Display of New Goods at Bear & Klein's Fashion Emporium.

While passing No. 28 East Main street, this forenoon, the attention of our reporter was attracted to a magnificent display of new and fashionable Millinery Goods, Notions, Novelties, etc., on sale at Bear & Klein's popular emporium of fashion. The new millinery goods have just been received, and it's no wonder that the ladies flock to the store to inspect and buy. In addition to the regular goods, the firm has a full line of German town Yarns and Zephyrs, Ladies' Underwear, Hosiery, Children's Cloaks and Hoods, Union Suits for children, and many other varieties, besides unnumberable novelties in the millinery line that must be seen to be appreciated. The ladies of the firm specially desire all their lady friends to give them an early call. No trouble whatever to show goods. Miss McAllister, late of Chicago, who is one of the very best trimmers in the West, is in the employ of Bear & Klein. Remember the place, No. 28 East Main street. Sept. 28—d&wtf

FURNITURE!

MATTRESSES, PILLOWS

PARLOR SUITES,

BED-ROOM SETS,

DINING-ROOM FURNITURE,

LOOKING GLASSES,

QUEENSWARE,

GLASSWARE,

LAMPS,

HULL'S VAPOR STOVES

The Best Summer Stove ever made:

COOKING AND HEATING STOVES

The most desirable patterns.

BASE BURNERS,

NEW STYLES:

In fact, almost everything you may want for House-keeping.

If you would secure Bargains in any goods I keep, please call at the Mammoth Stores of

R. LIDDLE, Court House Block. Decatur, Ill., Aug. 17, 1904—d&wtf

LADIES

Who do not wish any

DRY GOODS THIS FALL!

had better not come in our house; or if they have to come in, had better leave their pocket-books at home, for the

BIG STOCK OF PRETTY GOODS JUST IN

has already caused quite a commotion.

We saw a man's mother-in-law SMILE that had not smiled for five years, and all her friends thought "she'd never smile again." She had not looked at our Cheap Goods over two hours, either. They (the goods) "are too sweet to live."

F. L. HAYS & CO.

Oct 10—d&wtf

THE EVENT OF THE SEASON!

GRAND OPENING!

ELEGANT DISPLAY

DRY GOODS!

Dress Goods, Prints, Ginghams, Muslins, Ticks, Denims, Canton Flannels, Cheviots, Wool Flannels, HOUSEKEEPING GOODS,

HOSIERY,

Corsets, Cloaks,

Dolmans, Circulars,

Blankets, Quilts,

Shawls, Skirts,

Crochet and Knit Goods,

Ladies' & Men's Underwear

GLOVES, LACES, EMBROIDERIES,

AND FANCY GOODS AND NOTIONS.

In almost Unlimited Variety.

Men's Unlaundried Shirts and Men's Furnishing Goods of all kinds a Specialty.

For VARIETY, QUALITY and

EXCEEDING LOW PRICES,

our Stock is Unexcelled.

A Thorough Examination Respectfully Solicited.

ALL GOODS MARKED IN PLAIN SELLING FIGURES.

BIG 18 Cheap Store.

MERCHANT ST. Oct. 9—d&wtf SOL. MORITZ & CO.

OPERA HOUSE.

ONE NIGHT ONLY. MONDAY, OCT. 17th.

—ENGAGEMENT OF—

MR. FREDERICK

WARDE!

—Supported by—

HENRY AVELING, Leonard S. Outram, Jas. B. Curran, O. W. Baker, W. S. Marion, Misses Marion P. Clifton and FLORENCE ELMORE, and other artists of excellence, under the management of Mr. JOHN J. COLLINS, in the

—GRAND TRAGEDY—

"OTHELLO!"

The magnificent wardrobe worn by Mr. Warde and his company during these representations, is from the celebrated costumier, E. W. Laury, of New York and Paris.

RESERVED SEATS, $1.00. Admission, 50 and 75 cents. Reserved Seats for sale at Curtis & Co.'s on Oct 10th and after Thursday, Oct. 13th.

CITY DEPT.

LORON BARKER E. D. BARKER

AND it hurt her, Mary had a little Open her into A corner

HAVE you read "HALLOWEEN with THE trade in over HARMONIA Club

best at Guards' An THE mall tea for hour and tea man

A few cases of Decatur. THE Union depot is still there.

WARNER's Wife THE criminal court will be called

MARION is not a last election a lice Good office room

Inquire of A NEW Invoice have struck Decatur looking set

JUDITH CURTIS plain drunk $9 at the prison down

FRED WARDE was "Rumors" at ing and Saturday

"CALL for Schroe hemian cigars, and nickel smoker

BAD CLUB residence of D. R. the Misses Malcom

FANCY calling civilization writing. son, penman, at shop.

The office of the located over H. where Anne Bain may easily be found health. SURESS please ways on sale at C block.

THE Carlinville erred why bang cover lots of writ

THE much-late men's tournament "Cause why—the raise the "dust"

Wise ladies go elegant toilet goods drug store

AND still "Oh! mad. Warder by a very large

Get your ducat at the store form braham, Tuesday Oct 10-11w

UNITARIAN reli opens house next 3:30 o'clock. Re go, will preach

CHILDREN'S C store, in large va Big 18.

14—d&wtf JAMES HOLMAN his enlarged hat

prepared them numerous patron Oct 3—Jif

THE beautiful tere at Jackson $15,000, were dning of this we ter Y. M. C. own"

TABLE LINEN Tableling, Napkin etc., at 10, 15 and coal.

Oct 10-11w BLACK CASHM veta, Black Sall value, at 16 Me

Oct 10-11w BADDLE ROCK New York harbor Rymals, open Sept. 6-dif

A man's wife, name, especiall she is weak and Iron Pills, she bar "feel like least so they al say so too. F Swearingen.

The best C made—and wh should have—f Jacob d&wtf

P B PROV all kinds of style and at the brigs, new workman in b of business, ove on Prairie street

If you are t loned griping purging yours stit is not good Carter's Little now it is to be ache, constipa These little pill take and give in use. 60 in sale by Hubbe.

BIG 18 are full stock of ev line. They offer their own stock good at prices the neighbors. Be about.

Oct 10-11w

STATE OF ILLINOIS, [as

Macon County, In the Circuit Court—To the December Term, A. D. 1904.

Mary I. Gray vs. John A. Gray—Divorce.

A FIDELITY having been filed in the court's office of said circuit court that the said above-named defendant, after due and diligent inquiry, cannot be found so that process can be served on him, and said cause being now pending and undetermined in said court, you, the said John A. Gray, are hereby notified that unless you shall be and appear on the first day of said term of said court, to be held in the Court House, in the city of Decatur, on the first Monday in the month of December, A. D. 1904, and plead, answer or demur to said cause, a said bill, a decree pro confesso will be entered in said cause in pursuance with the prayer of said bill.

EDMISTON MCELLEMAN, Clerk. Oct 11—d&wtf

DIVORCE NOTICE.

STATE OF ILLINOIS, [as

Macon County, In the Circuit Court—To the December

ST. MICHAEL'S
CHARLIE
Twenty-eighth
Jan. 1, 1909

Don't Forget
April. Good times.